- Rumanian troops were quartered in Medias and in the area between Medias and Mojna, where houses had been requisitioned for that purpose. That led to the bolief that maneuvers were carried out in the area.
- Reportedly, all the villas in Predeal which belonged to foreigners had been seized from their owners and were occupied by motorized Securitate troops (wearing blue uniforms). Numerous Securitate trucks could be seen around the villas.
- The national highway is reportedly off limits from Predeal to Campina. Inhabitants of the area can travel only by train and only after first securing a special permit.
- In both Medias and Bucharest the population is reported to be eagerly waiting for the outbreak of war, which is thought to be imminent. They hope thus to regain their freedom.
- 7. During the first days of July 1950, the sale of the following items in Rumania was blocked and their distribution was discontinued even to those ration card holders who were engaged in heavy work:
